Lesson: 1 John 4:7-21

Sermon Scripture: Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes came near and heard Jesus and the Sadducees disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to Jesus, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'God is one, and besides God there is no other'; and 'to love God with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,'—this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that the scribe answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the dominion of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

prayer corner

If my soul has turned
perversely to the dark;
If I have left some brother
wounded by the way;
If I have preferred my
aims to yours;
If I have been impatient
and would not wait;
If I have marred the pattern
drawn out for my life;
If I have cost tears to those
I loved;
If my heart has murmured
against your will,
O Lord, forgive.

F.B. Meyer

*"Forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us."*

God is here for you,
in the word and
sacraments, in the love
of this community.
